3. SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF AGREEMENT, ARRANGEMENT AND/OR PRACTICE OF PROVIDING SUPPORT OR ASSISTANCE:

Presidential memorandum establishing the National Communications System (NCS), dated 21 August 1963.

4. DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY, INCLUDING RELEVANT DATES:

The NCS was established by Presidential directive in 1963 to develop and maintain a survivable national communications system to serve selected and essential needs of the U.S. Government. Certain CIA staff communications assets were included in the system, and a few CIA communications officers were considered necessary to represent CIA on the professional communications organization established by the NCS Executive Agent (Secretary of Defense) to execute the program. Initially, three CIA communications officers were assigned full time to the NCS, but since July 1973 there has been one full-time and one part-time officer assigned.

5. LOCATION OF ASSISTANCE: NCS Headquarters.
6. ORGANIZATION(S) INVOLVED: CIA, DOD, State, FAA, GSA, NASA.
7. BASIS OR REASON FOR ACTIVITY:

To represent CIA communications' interests and assets in the NCS.

8. FINANCIAL COSTS:

Salaries for one full-time and one part-time CIA communications officer.

3. SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF AGREEMENT, ARRANGEMENT AND/OR PRACTICE OF PROVIDING SUPPORT OR ASSISTANCE:

Privacy communications support to travelling VIP's.

4. DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY, INCLUDING RELEVANT DATES:

The Agency world-wide communications system provides special communications support to key officials from many other Government components by handling their messages via Agency facilities between world-wide points. Usually this is pre-arranged but can occur on an ad hoc basis in a crisis. This support is consistent with the degree of sensitivity or special classification that is to be extended the particular communications matter and where other communications channels either do not exist or are considered improper for the types of communications desired.

5. LOCATION OF ASSISTANCE:

Washington, D.C. area and, as required, other points where Agency facilities are available.

6. ORGANIZATION(S) INVOLVED:

Any U.S. Government organization.

7. BASIS OR REASON FOR ACTIVITY:

This service is intended to provide a degree of privacy for sensitive matters not believed to be available through other U.S. Government communications facilities.

8. FINANCIAL COSTS:

No direct costs involved.

9. MANPOWER:

Minimal (approximately 1/4 man year).

3. SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF AGREEMENT, ARRANGEMENT AND/OR PRACTICE OF PROVIDING SUPPORT OR ASSISTANCE:

No specific agreement.
4. DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY, INCLUDING RELEVANT DATES:

Processing cables for non-CIA officials. The Cable Secretariat processes messages sent by officials of other U.S. Government components, including those addressed EYES ONLY or the equivalent. These messages contain non-CIA text and are transmitted via Agency channels in Agency format. The Cable Secretariat sterilizes the message by removing all CIA indicators, cable address designators and caveats, in preparation for a delivery to the designated person. This procedure has been in effect since 23 December 1955.
5. LOCATION OF ASSISTANCE: Washington, D.C. area.

Support to PFIAB as tasked by higher authority.*

4. DESCRIPTION OF ACTIVITY, INCLUDING RELEVANT DATES:

In 1969 the Central Intelligence Agency was tasked to provide support to the President's Foreign Intelligence Advisory Board (PFIAB) through its secure communications system. CIA facilities were to be used to transmit classified messages to or from members of the Board at their offices or their residences. OC is responsible for handling the messages between the White House and CIA Headquarters building and for delivering them to the Office of Security for onward transmission to their destination via the OS secure network. OC also handles the messages through its network to the
